MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: House Floor Scheduling for Intelligence Authorization Bill

1. During the week of July 28, 1986, I spoke with David Addington, Minority Counsel, House Permanent Select Committee on Intelligence (HPSCI) on H.R. 2749, the HPSCI version of the FY '87 intelligence authorization bill.

Technical Corrections to the Bill

2. Mr. Addington indicated that the Committee staff had discovered several technical errors in H.R. 4759 as reported out by the Committee. They were preparing a technical amendment to correct those errors as follows:

- ° On page 8, line 23, change "late" to "later"
- ° On page 16, line 20, change "US" to "USC"
- ° On page 30, line 25, add "and" after ";"

Mr. Addington solicited any corrections we might have. I indicated we had none at this point, but that I would forward along any we might discover.

Schedule for Floor Action on the Bill

2. Mr. Addington then indicated that the Committee hoped to take the bill to the floor during the week of August 11, 1986. It appeared the Committee would ask for a rule to allow for three votes.

3. The first vote would be on a package consisting of the above-noted technical amendment and the two groups of "committee amendments". The first group of committee amendments are those added in committee by HPSCI, essentially the Hyde amendment mandating federal pension forfeiture for Intelligence Identities Protection Act violations. The second group are those added in committee by the Post Office and Civil Service Committee, principally the reporting requirement added in connection with the provision revising the military intelligence personnel system.

4. The second vote, with 1 1/2 hours of debate preceding it, would be on a motion to strike the section of the bill dealing with Angola.

5. The third vote would be an up or down vote on the bill itself.

6. The scheduling problem is presented by the difficulty in finding 1 1/2 hours of floor time during the week in question. It is not clear at this point whether or not the time will be available. If it is not, action will have to be postponed until after the August recess.
